Birders:

In spite of the chilly, windy weather, we had a lot of people out birding yesterday. I received reports from 26 participants, many of them representing more than one person's observations. Attached is the checklist compiled from all the reports, listing 111 species.

Please let me know if you spot any omissions or errors and I will send out a correction. Your comments are welcome.

Thanks to all who participated. I trust you found it enjoyable. We hope that next year we can return to the traditional manner of carrying this out.

Bob Martin

UPDATE:

We had some additional species reported yesterday from sightings on Thursday. These additions are: Muscovy Duck, American Wigeon, Sora, and Barred Owl. That raises our species total for Birding The Villages this year to 115.

An updated checklist is attached.

Bob Martin
