THE VILLAGE BIRDERS BIRD WALK REPORT
PONCE INLET 12-3-18

Leader: Barb Gay

A great day on our Ponce Inlet trip with 65 species and some really good birds. The weather was nasty all around us but we lucked out and seemed to be in the right place at the right time. We all had a fine lunch at Aunt Catfish with some of us continuing birding after. Some of our highlighted birds of today were: Common Eider, Red Knot, Black Scoter and Horned Grebe. See full report attached. Hope it was a fun day for all!

Note: On club trips that entail more than one stop to bird it would be nice if all cars stayed together and birded together.

REMINDER!

*The 119th Audubon Christmas Bird Count is on 12-21-18

Stop, Look and Listen,
