Bird Walk Report
Carney Island 2-25-19

Leader: Bob Cole

It was cool and windy to start the day but there were 20 of us out to try our luck at spotting our feathered friends. From the shore at Weir Lake we usually see waders and ducks but not today, it was suggested, they were all blown back in the woods and were not coming out. So, we started our walk in the woods and were treated to two juvenile Eagles chasing each other around in the sky. It was a while before the sun over took the chill and the birds started moving. We saw a Tom Turkey with his tail all fanned out showing off and strutting his stuff for the hens, White Eyed Vireo, Black and White Warbler, and Northern Parula, all putting on a show. It turned out to be a great day to be in the woods.
