On Tuesday Jan 28th 20 birders visited three local locations where we spotted 45 different species. Our first stop was Sable Bluff, it was cool, and it started off slow. Ultimately, we spotted a mixed flock of Passerines, had good looks at Kestrels and many Phoebe's. At Herling Park, we had a good look at Cedar Waxwings a Northern Flicker and a Red Shoulder Hawk. Our last visit was to Venetian Gardens where the Limpkin, and Purple Gallinule were putting on a show. It turned out to be a great day and all had fun spotting our feathered friends.

See the attached report
