Birders:

We had a picture perfect day at Sweetwater Wetlands yesterday!

Weather was wonderful.

As a group we tallied 56 species which is excellent with only a couple of Ducks.

Thank you, Tammy, and everyone for pointing out and ID'ing species.

We did not see our Snail Kite which I thought would definitely show but.....next time.

Some of our favorite sightings were White-crowned Sparrows, Purple Gallinules, American Bittern, Sora, Northern Harriers, Black-crowned Night Herons. King Rail was calling but was too shy to come out of the reeds. I will send our total list separately or you can check it out on eBird.org.
